KEY FEATURES

DESIGNED FOR GOLFERS

The Approach S72 golf smartwatch is lightweight, comfortable and fits snuggly on your wrist. See the data you need on an easy-to-read AMOLED display.

GOLF BIOMETRIC DATA
NEW

After your round, look back to see how heart rate[1] impacts your performance and start to see trends in how it relates to your overall score.

SWING METRICS
NEW

Gain a better understanding of your swing during your range session and after your round with metrics such as hand speed, backswing length, wrist rotation and more.

GREEN READING
NEW

Know your aim point with the green reading feature, which uses green contour data to find your line once the pin location is set[2].
(Requires an active Garmin Golf membership plan. Feature only available where coverage exist.)

AERIAL IMAGERY
NEW

Get an enhanced view of the shot ahead so, you can make more informed decisions for where to lay up, the best place to miss and more[2].

DRIVING RANGE ACTIVITY
NEW

Make the most of your practice session with the driving range activity, which tracks metrics for each swing so you can learn your tendencies and make improvements.
